

Get MOOOOOOtivated for a Fun and Safe Day at the Farm

A Checklist to Prevent Illness and Injury for Agritourism Venues

The best practices described below are based on the Compendium of Measures to Prevent Disease Associated with Animals in Public Settings, 2023.

If you are a petting zoo operator, please use this checklist as a tool to design and operate your petting zoo according to the

If you are a petting zoo operator, please use this checklist as a tool to design and operate your petting zoo according to the national standards. If you are hiring a petting zoo, please use this checklist to evaluate potential vendors
	Ha	ndwashing Stations  Should be placed at the entrance and exit of animal encounter areas  Should have running water  Should be accessible for children and persons with disabilities  Plan in place for restocking paper towels, soap, and water  Handwashing signage  Hand sanitizer should not be used as a substitute for hand washing		Tra	nsitional Areas  Should be placed at the entrance and exit of animal encounter areas  Consider placing an area to store strollers outside of the animal encounter area  Consider providing alcohol wipes which can be used to wipe down cellphones and other frequently touched surfaces  Some animals shed more bacteria, and are higher risk encounters than others (Examples include: calves, baby goats, lambs, chickens, and reptiles)  Soiled animal bedding should never be transported through public areas
	Visitor Education		Animal Care
	0	Should be in multiple formats (signs, videos, QR codes, etc.) Signage should be posted at post transition areas		0	Sick and injured animals should be excluded immediately, especially animals with diarrhea and/ or sores
	0	Staff members should be present throughout facility and ready to provide relevant information  taff Education  Review best practices from the Compendium with		0	Manure and soiled bedding should be removed from enclosures promptly
				0	Surfaces should be cleaned regularly (pen railings etc.)
				0	Animals should be housed in a way that minimizes stress and overcrowding
	0	staff on a regular basis  Train new staff using Compendium and other		0	Stressed animals often shed more infectious bacteria
	0	relevant resources  Ensure staff feel comfortable explaining concepts to visitors  Explain that one of the staff roles is to provide education to the public on how to enjoy animals safely		0	Use feed containers that could not be easily confused with human food like ice cream cones
	0			0	Vaccinate for Rabies with an approved vaccine